

Our dinner hours are no longer interrupted constantly, yet we continue to receive calls from the charities we have long supported. I am grateful for the positive effects of the Do Not Call list and wholeheartedly support its continuation.